ACCOUNTANT LUCKY TO WIN.

GALLAVANT HAS HIM DRIVING AT END OF SARATOGA DERBY.

Heavy Betting On the Wilson Horse-Kiamesha Is Beaten by Zienap for the Mile Handicap-Favorite a Bleeder.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 23.—It was oppressively hot, but fully twelve thousand persons witnessed the running of an excellent card today, the Saratoga Derby being the feature, at the unusual distance of one mile and five sixteenths. "Diamond Jim" Brady's prize package, Accountant, added another rich stake to his credit by defeating the erratic Gallavant in a hard drive, with the only other starter, McKittredge, a distant third. In view of the fact that track conditions were considered to be distinctly favorable to Gallavant and that the Wilson colt was thoroughly seasoned in recent races as against Accountant's possible dislike to the going, as against Accountant's possible distike to the going, and a further probability of his not being keyed up for so long a journey, the former colt was the medium of some of the heaviest betting of the season. The Gates-Drake combination led in backing him, taking all the 8 to 5 offered in the ring. This enabled the favorite followers to obtain as good as 7 to 10 or better against Brady's champion, but they were lucky to cash. Had Gallavant run truly in this race he would have been returned the win-ner. Despite the loss of a half dozen lengths on the turn the Wilson colt finished wearing the favorite down at the end. Experts declared, however, that this is as near to the winner as he will ever be again this season.

Withdrawals rulned the handicap at a mile, in which some of the fastest fillies and mares in train-ing were originally named to start. Ginette and Neva Lee were the conspicuous absentees. The field flwindled down to Kiamesha, Zienap and Bivouac. Kiamesha, the topweight, was held at short odds by the layers and fortunes were lost with her unexpected defeat. Indeed the former record-breaker was exceedingly lucky to be second, as Bivouac was expenditule for a corn, within and only foliabled a corphality for a corn, within and only foliabled as overhauling her at every stride and only finished a nose behind her after running to the extreme out-side in the closing three furlongs. Kiamesha's race was too bad to be true and an investigation followed, which developed that the famous mare had bled recently in her work and had accordingly been indulged in her exercise and was short. This fact had been kept a profound secret, and it was not learned that any one in particular had benefited

Belle Strome showed a sudden reversal of form by winning the first race at seven furlongs from a big band of selling platers. Jocund, now handled by W.

B. Jennings, ran a winning race.

Pirate, at odds-on, easily captured the steeplechase handicap over the full course.

J. E. Madden's filly, Bemay, reversed her previous running by easily winning the two-year-old selling, at five and a half furlongs. The apprentice rider, Alex, rode her suspiciously in her preceding race and was summarily dismissed from Madden's employ.

Lord Lovat, one of the grandest looking colts seen this year, won the closing race in stake horse fashion and was the medium of one of the biggest coups of the current meeting. Grimaldi made a promising debut and, if he runs up to his private form, may with the Fathanite. win the Futurity.

Lord Lovat is in the United States Hotel Stakes to be run next Saturday. His weight is 117 pounds, and experts predict an easy victory for the crack

Foxhall Keene was at the race course this after-

J. B. Brady, gave jockey Martin a $1,000 fee for riding Accountant to victory in the Derby. "Chicago" O'Brien lost a wager of $20,000 on Kiamesha today.

ANOTHER DISQUALIFICATION AT LATONIA.

Hereafter Fouls Warner Griswell-A Demonstration Follows the Action of the Judges.

Cincinnati, O., Angust 23.—A wild demonstration followed the disqualification of Hereafter in the fifth race at Latonia today. Hereafter was a well backed outsider. He showed the most speed, leading Warner Griswell, the best backed favorite of the afternoon, throughout and finished first by a good margin. In the stretch drive, however, Aubuchon brought Hereafter from the center of the track to the inner rail, deliberately and effectively impeding the favorite and forcing Nicol to take impeding the favorite and forcing Nicol to take back and lose some ground. Horsemen who saw the foul were not surprised to see Nicol lodge complaint and the change in the numbers that gave the to Warner Griswell. With many of the spect With many of the spectators, however, it was different. They were still dis-satisfied with yesterday's disqualification and did not hesitate to criticise the judges' ruling. Aubuchon was fined $50.

The card was at best a mediocre one and was further depleted by withdrawals in all the races, the last one being declared off entirely and a further selling race at a mile substituted. A number of those entered for the original sixth were entered to start in the substituted race, showing that th owners in trying to pick a soft spot went up against a harder problem. In this instance Carthage proved to be much the best. Although he was practically left at the post, he won in handy style, while those originally slated finished nowhere within halling distance of the winner.

The return of Fred Cook to the ranks of layer here enlivened matters in the betting ring. His stay here will be of short duration. He says the horses he shipped to Sheepshead Bay in charge of trainer Bill Phillips are doing well and will begin their campaign on the opening day of the Sheepshead Bay fall meeting. He says he will attend the year ling sales and purchase material for next season.

After a week's stay at Sheepshead Bay he will go to Louisville and resume booking at the Douglas Park meeting. He has made arrangements to let Nicol remain here until Thursday of next week, when the jockey will go to New York. Among the mounts he will have on the opening day will be the best one of James R. Keene's entry in the Futurity.

C. C. McCafferty took his string of hors

Windsor today. There are ten head in the string.
J. H. Shouldice also sent his horses there.
E. J. Gildersleeve, from whom Amberita an E. J. Gildersleeve, from whom Amberita and Chief Millikin were claimed yesterday, repurchased the horses at advanced prices today.

Jockey Jost is out of the hospital and will probably accept mounts beginning next week.

Montalban is reported very sick and grave fears are entertained as to his recovery.

1. O. Keene, who is now racing Red Leaf and other horses at Saratoga, has sent word to his broth-er, G. H. Keene, that he will ship at the close of the Saratoga meeting all of their horses now in the east to Douglas Park.

TEN WEEKS OF IDLENESS OR BUSH RACING.

Horsemen at Seattle Are Confronted With This Problem-Little Chance for Meeting at Portland.

Seattle, Wash., August 23.-With the meeting at adows nearing an end, there is no loss in the sport. Rather, the attendance larger than it has been at any time during the season. The stand has been well filled every day while the betting ring has been jammed. Several of the bookmakers have moved to Butte for the meeting which opened Tuesday. The meeting here will close on September 3, and that at Butte will end September 8, but there will be minor meetings to follow and a number of horsemen have announced their intention of taking their runners over to Montana. Others will go to Salem and east of the mountains for the bush meetings that will be held immediately after the close of racing here.

Anylong eyes are turned toward Portland, and Auxious eyes are turned toward Portland, and there are many who wish there will be something doing there. Although there is a good crowd at doing there. Although there is a good crowd at Portland who believe there is a chance that there will be a meeting, horsemen here do not think it will be possible for any meeting, and the next big racing will be in California in November.

Many horsemen, employes, jockeys and others who make their living from the tracks, and do not care to journey over the bush circuits, are wondering how they will fill in the space between the Seattle and California meetings. This was the motive for proposing an extension of five days here, but the stewards came to the conclusion that it was best to let a good thing alone. The meeting has been the let a good thing alone. The meeting has been the most successful in the history of racing in the northwest, and the stewards considered that it was due the public and outside horsem the meeting as originally announced by the asso

GATES MUST PAY $5,000 INSTEAD OF $500.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 23 .- Messrs. Peter Mc-Grath, W. Davis and W. Hutchinson, the arbitration committee of the Metropolitan Turf Association, which was called upon to decide the disputed McGibben-Cowan wager on Wes, made last Monday, have given judgment in favor of the bookmaker. John W. Gates must pay Cowan $5,000 instead of $500 on the ground that McGibben, his agent, was a professional betting commissioner and therefore bound by the rules to verify his wagers.

LIGHTNING KILLS DEUCE OF HEARTS.

Lexington, Ky., August 23.—Deuce of Hearts, one of Captain T. J. Clay's broodmares, was killed by lightning in a pasture at Balgowan Stud Tuesday night. The mare, with her foal by Batten, was standing under a locust tree, which was struck by lightning. The foal was not injured in the slightest, yet two rabbits were found dead about fifty feet from the remains of the mare. Deuce of Hearts was eight years old. She was by De Beauvoir, out of Ace of Hearts,

HITCHCOCK WANTS $40,000 FOR SALVIDERE.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 23.—Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., was asked by Matt Allen on behalf of J. B. Brady to put a price on Salvidere today, and named $40,000. Brady remarked that figure was too steep and offered $25,000, which was declined. With Accountant's victory in the Saratoga Derby, Brady seems prepared to go the limit and everyone is expecting to hear that the great two-year-old has changed hands.

SIR HUON TO GO AGAINST TIME.

Louisville, Ky., August 23.—Manager John Hachmeister says it has been arranged with George J. Long that Sir Huon is to come to Douglas Park during the fall meeting to run against time. Mr. Long, he says, will decide upon the distance after Sir Huon fills his engagement in the race for the Saratoga Cup.

ENGLISH JOCKEY CLUB STEWARD ARRIVES.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 23.—Arthur James, a steward of the English Jockey Club, has just arrived in New York and is expected here daily. He is related to the Messrs. Hitchcock, has extensive American interests and is here on business.

CASHIER KIRWAN DIES AT SARATOGA.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 23.—Peter J. Kirwan, cashier for bookmaker Moss, was stricken with apoplexy while attending to his duties at the track yesterday and died today at the Saratoga hospital.

Winner—B. f. by The Roman—Rival (trained by R. Cassidy).

Went to post at 3:26. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Oak Grove, away well and clear of interference, was much the best and won as her rider pleased. Dr. Burch ran a curprisingly good race and gamely stood a hard drive through the stretch. Six Shooter, away poorly and sulking in the early stages, went wide all the way and finished fast. Lady Henrietta was a forward contender from the start, stood the final drive well and appeared to some to have finished third. Elsetic, badly ridden and taken all over the track, ran a good race and was going well at the end. Rossessa ran a good half. Potter and Adesso were as good as left.

Scratched—44236 Matador, 117; 64337 Chief Millikin, 111; 64280 Pinaud, 98; (64296) Nonie Lucille, 110; 64314 Tom Tom, 98.

POLICE SCANDAL ATTENDS POOLROOM CASE.

Eight New Orleans Officers Are Suspended-Grand Jury at Work-Brown Pleads Not Guilty.

New Orleans, La., August 23.—The grand jury has again taken up the police scandal growing out of the operation of an alleged poolroom at 738 Gravier street by "Curley" Brown. District Attorney Parker says that the investigation will be thorough and complete, and more indictments are expected. It is said that the grand jury is going after big game, and it is rumored that a member of the legislature will be caught in the meshes of the law. "Curley" Brown was arraigned before Judge Chreatian's division of the Criminal Court yesterday on two indictments charging him with operating a poolroom. He entered a plea of not guilty and was released on bond. No date has been fixed for the trial.

Inspector Whittaker, the head of the New Orleans

Inspector Whittaker, the head of the New Orleans police department, was at Saratoga our his vacation when the grand jury unearthed the poolroom scandal. He cut his vacation short and came back home post haste. The inspector signalized his return by suspending eight officers and citing them to appear for trial. The officers suspended are: Sergeant William Azcona, commander of the south precinct; Corporal Garry Mullen, roundsman of the first precinct; detective John Paderas, detective John Dantonie, detective James Reynolds, detective Schultz and special officers Mouny and Coyle. The charges are gross neglect of duty in each instance.

JOCKEY HENRY'S SUCCESS IN FRANCE.

Jockey Milton Henry, who is riding in France for Baron Rothschild, under a contract for three years, writes to a friend here that he is "making good." He says: "I am now third on the list of winning jockeys and, as I am putting one or two over every day, I have a good chance to be at the top, or mighty near it, when the season is over."

CAHN'S YEARLINGS ARE AT MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Tenn., August 23.— Assistant-trainer Sheridan. of J. C. Cahn's stable, has reached Montgomery Park with eleven horses to be trained for the winter racing season in New Orleans. The consignment includes yearling sons and daughters of Bitter Root, also the three-year-old colt. Horse radish, which was knocked out of training early in the present season.
